

ELOQUENT ENGLISH WEEK

Elocution

“Embrace the spotlight, for it is your platform to shine. Let your words paint vivid pictures, captivate minds and inspire change. In the realm of public speaking, you are not just a student; you are a storyteller, a leader, and a beacon of inspiration.”

Dear Parents,

As part of Eloquent English Week, we will embark on a journey to celebrate the profound influence of language. This year, our focus is on harnessing the power of words to champion the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), emphasizing the importance of sustainability and global responsibility.

Grade VI to VIII students will have an ‘Elocution’ competition. Each student can choose to speak on any one of the topics listed below. The participant will have to deliver the speech for 3 min and will not be allowed to extend time. It is mandatory for all the students to participate in the prelims as the marks will be considered for the internal assessment.

Topics

1. Reducing, Reusing and Recycling: Small Steps to a Greener Future.
2. Water Pollution: A threat To Life.
3. Healthy Snacks vs. Sugary Treats
4. How Junk Food Affects Our Concentration And Makes Us Lazy?

Finalists will be intimated through the organizer.

Finalists will have to give the same presentation to a gathering of all competing classes and Judges.

Prelims Week: 11th August and 14th August 2025 during the English period

Finals Week: 18th August to 22nd August 2025

The Judging Criteria: The students will be judged on the basis of Fluency & pronunciation, Presentation Style, language, content, Confidence & poise.

Please Note: The judge's decision will be final and binding.

Mind Your Language Lucky Draw: As a part of the Eloquent English week, we will be having the Mind Your Language Lucky Draw where Everyday students will be asked grade appropriate questions based on English grammar and the grade wise winners would be selected through a lucky draw.

D.E.A.R Day: On 21/8/2025, Thursday, we will Drop Everything And Read for an hour. Please ensure that your child carries one or two of their favorite books to read.

Please encourage your ward to participate.

Regards,
English Department
TGES VN

ELOQUENT ENGLISH WEEK

ORATION

“Embrace the spotlight, for it is your platform to shine. Let your words paint vivid pictures, captivate minds and inspire change. In the realm of public speaking, you are not just a student; you are a storyteller, a leader, and a beacon of inspiration.”

Dear Parents,

As part of The Eloquent English Week, we will embark on a journey to celebrate the profound influence of language. This year, our focus is on harnessing the power of words to champion the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), emphasizing the importance of sustainability and global responsibility.

Grade IV & V students will have an ‘Oration’ competition. Each student can choose to speak on any one of the topics listed below. The participant will have to deliver the speech for 2 min, and will not be allowed to extend time. It is mandatory for all the students to participate in the prelims as the marks will be considered for the internal assessment.

- 1. Role Of Quality Sleep in Healthy Growth and Learning
- 2. Taking Care of Your Eyes in A Digital World
- 3. Sugars And Oils- Our Friends or Foes?
- 4. Physical Activities and Mental Well Being

Finalists will be intimated through the organizer.

Finalists will have to give the same presentation to a gathering of all competing classes and Judges.

Prelims Week: 11th August to 14th August 2025 during the English period

Finals Week: 22nd August 2025

The Judging Criteria: The students will be judged on the basis of Fluency & pronunciation, Presentation Style, Content, Language, Confidence & poise.

Please Note: The judge's decision will be final and binding.

Mind Your Language Lucky Draw: As a part of the Eloquent English week, we will be having the Mind Your Language Lucky Draw where Everyday students will be asked grade appropriate questions based on English grammar and the grade wise winners would be selected through a lucky draw.

D.E.A.R Day: On 21/8/2025, Wednesday, we will Drop Everything and Read for an hour. Please ensure that your child carries one or two of their favourite books to read.

Please encourage your ward to participate.

Regards,
English Department
TGES VN

ELOQUENT ENGLISH WEEK

RECITATION

“Embrace the spotlight, for it is your platform to shine. Let your words paint vivid pictures, captivate minds and inspire change. In the realm of public speaking, you are not just a student; you are a storyteller, a leader, and a beacon of inspiration.”

Dear Parents,

As part of Eloquent English Week, we will celebrate the power of language by organizing various competitions. This year, our theme is Choose Smart-Eat Healthy based on the Sustainable Development Goals (SDG 3) Good Health and Well-Being, emphasizing the importance of sustainability and global responsibility.

Grade I students will have a Poem Recitation competition. Students can choose any poem from the given theme and prepare 10 -12 lines. The recitation of poem should not exceed 2 mins in duration. Participation in the prelims is mandatory as it is a part of Continuous Comprehensive Evaluation (CCE)

Finalists will be intimated through Organizer/MCB.

Finalists will have to give the same presentation to a gathering of all competing classes and judges.

Prelims Week: 11th August, 2025 to 14th August, 2025 during the English periods.

Finals: 20th August, 2025.(Wednesday)

The Judging Criteria: The students will be judged on the basis of fluency & pronunciation, memory, presentation style, content and confidence.

Please Note: The judge's decision will be final and binding.

Mind Your Language Lucky Draw: As a part of the Eloquent English week, we will be having the Mind Your Language Lucky Draw where everyday students will be asked grade appropriate questions based on English grammar and the grade wise winners would be selected through a lucky draw.

D.E.A.R Day: On 21/08/2025, Thursday, we will Drop everything and Read for an hour. Please ensure that your child carries one or two of their favourite books to read. Please encourage your ward to participate.

Regards,

English Department- TGES VN

ELOQUENT ENGLISH WEEK

ELOCUTION

“Embrace the spotlight, for it is your platform to shine. Let your words paint vivid pictures, captivate minds and inspire change. In the realm of public speaking, you are not just a student; you are a storyteller, a leader, and a beacon of inspiration.”

Dear Parents,

As part of the Eloquent English Week, we celebrate the power of language by organizing various competitions. This year, our theme is based on the Sustainable Development Goal 3 (SDG-3) – “Good Health and Well-being”, emphasizing the importance of healthy lifestyle, sustainable habits and global responsibility.

Grade III students will have an Elocution competition focusing on healthy habits and active living.

- Students can choose any topic from the list given below and prepare well.
- The speech should not exceed 3 minutes in duration.

Participation is mandatory as the marks are consolidated for Continuous and Comprehensive Evaluation(CCE).

Topics to choose from:

1. Healthy lunch boxes with less sugar and oil
2. I grow strong - eating right and active play
3. Daily routine for good health
4. Yoga and Exercise Make Me Strong and Smart

Finalists will be intimated through the organizer. Finalists will have to give the same presentation to a gathering of all competing classes and Judges.

Prelims Week: 11th August to 14th August 2025 during the English period

Finals: 18th August 2025(Monday)

The Judging Criteria: The students will be judged on the basis of Fluency & pronunciation, Presentation Style, Content & language, Confidence & poise.

Please Note: The judge’s decision will be final and binding.

Mind Your Language Lucky Draw: As a part of the Eloquent English week, we will be having the Mind Your Language Lucky Draw wherein Everyday students will be asked grade appropriate questions everyday based on English grammar and the grade wise winners will be selected through a lucky draw.

D.E.A.R Day: On 21/8/2025, Thursday, we will Drop Everything And Read for one period. Please ensure that your child carries one or two of their favorite books to read.

Please encourage your ward to participate.

Regards,
English Department
TGES VN

ELOQUENT ENGLISH WEEK

Spin -A- Yarn (Story Telling Competition)

“Embrace the spotlight, for it is your platform to shine. Let your words paint vivid pictures, captivate minds and inspire change. In the realm of public speaking, you are not just a student; you are a storyteller, a leader, and a beacon of inspiration.”

Dear Parents,

As part of Eloquent English Week, we will celebrate the power of language by organizing various competitions. This year, our theme is Choose Smart-Eat Healthy based on the Sustainable Development Goals (SDG 3) ” Good Health and Well-Being” , emphasizing the importance of sustainability and global responsibility.

Grade II students will have a Storytelling competition.

The story can be selected or created based on the points given below.

- Create Interesting characters- Use animals, humans or even talking objects to make the story fun and easy to understand.
- Give characters a problem: Show how characters face a challenge related to health eating habits.
- Show the solution and moral: End the story by showing how choosing healthy food helps the characters feel better , stronger and happier.

The story should not exceed 3 minutes in duration. Participation in the prelims is mandatory as it is a part of Continuous Comprehensive Evaluation (CCE)

Finalists will be intimated through Organizer/MCB

Finalists will have to give the same presentation to a gathering of all competing classes and judges.

Prelims Week: 11th August ,2025 to 14th August,2025 during the English periods

Finals: 20th August, 2025.(Wednesday)

The Judging Criteria : The students will be judged on the basis of fluency & pronunciation, memory , presentation style, content and confidence .

Please Note: The judge’s decision will be final and binding.

Mind Your Language Lucky Draw: As a part of the Eloquent English week, we will be having the Mind Your Language Lucky Draw where everyday students will be asked grade appropriate questions based on English grammar and the grade wise winners would be selected through a lucky draw.

D.E.A.R Day: On 21/08/2025, Thursday, we will Drop Everything And Read for an hour. Please ensure that your child carries one or two of their favourite books to read.

Please encourage your ward to participate.

Regards,
English Department
TGES VN